II. Basis for Jurisdiction:

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction. Only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case involving the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one state sues a citizen of another state and the amount in damages is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case.

A. What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

 Federal Questions Diversity of Citizenship

B. If the basis for jurisdiction is Federal Question, what federal Constitutional, statutory or treaty right is at issue? (see attachment)

Attachment B Basis for Jurisdiction and Notice

This Court has original jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1333 over Plaintiff's cause of action arising under the Constitution of the United States and 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and pursuant to the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over plaintiff's causes of action arising under the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337.

This Court also has jurisdiction pursuant to 18 U.S. Code § 1962 over Plaintiff's cause of action arising under the The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, or RICO, the United States federal law that provides for extended criminal penalties and a civil cause of action for acts performed as part of an ongoing criminal organization.

Venue lies in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania Allentown Division because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in County of Lehigh, Pennsylvania. 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b)(2).

Divisional venue is in the Allentown Division because the events leading to the claim for relief arose in County of Lehigh.

NOTICE

Plaintiff is not a BAR member, and requests assistance from the Honorable Judge assigned to this case, especially concerning US civil procedure and US Law, especially concerning The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, or RICO.

Plaintiff served the universal church as a Papal Knight, Medical Missionary and Diplomat in 2009 in Nepal and is trained in international law and Diplomacy and holds a Diplomatic passport. Plaintiff's title is Chevallier Reverend.

Plaintiff believes Diplomatic status protects the Plaintiff from false imprisonment, malicious prosecution etc. by the Defendants and that the Defendants violated international law by their acts of extreme violence and trespass against the Plaintiff.

Plaintiff is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame, graduate school of business (1977), and may request Notre Dame Professor G. Robert Blakey, the nation's foremost authority on the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act (RICO), link here: <https://law.nd.edu/directory/g-blakey/> or his associate, to write and file an Amicus Brief in support of Plaintiff's Claim of RICO Law violations against the Defendants, or such an Amicus Brief may be filed with this court without a request from the Plaintiff as a result of Plaintiff's recent application to Notre Dame Law School.

C. If the basis for jurisdiction is Diversity of Citizenship, what is the state of citizenship of each party?

Plaintiff(s) state(s) of citizenship _____ No

Defendant(s) state(s) of citizenship _____
